Frank S. Murphy, who yesterday celebrated the twenty-first anniversary of her wedding.

AND MRS. F. S. MURPHY celebrated last evening their twenty-first wedding anniversary with a large bridge party for thirty of their friends. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Murphy on Second avenue, and the autumn decorations of flowers and fruit were used. The room was decorated with pink chrysanthemums and white flowers. The bridge was played, and prizes were given to the winners. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. George Stetler, Mr. and Mrs. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. L. Parker, Mrs. Fred Hornung, Mrs. D. W. Phelan, Mrs. Wesley King, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. F. A. Vincent, Mrs. W. H. Dunn, Miss Janet Williamson, Mrs. J. C. Hooper, Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Phil Clark.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Harry L. Jordan entertained Sunday afternoon at a most delightful tea at their quarters in Fort Douglas, the affair being especially in honor of their niece, Miss Ellen Maury of Norfolk, Va., who is to be the guest for some time. Only the officers and ladies of the post were asked, and Mrs. James A. Jones and Mrs. Frederick G. Perkins assisted the hostess by pouring tea and coffee, while a number of the young people assisted in serving. The affair was the first of a series of Sunday afternoon "at homes" at which Lieutenant and Mrs. Jordan will receive their friends.

Numerous theater parties were given last evening at the Salt Lake theater for the opening of "The Kiss Waltz," all the boxes being filled with parties of friends. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Snow entertained in one stall, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. L. Moody of Chicago, Mrs. Durilla Grant and Senator George Sutherland. A supper at the Hotel Utah followed the play.

Colonel and Mrs. Perkins of Fort Douglas took a merry party of young people to the ball game Saturday afternoon in the big army talky and back to dinner at their home in the evening. The guests were the three girls who were members of the house party at the Perkins home, Miss Mary Luman, Miss Florence Halloran and Miss Genevieve Savage, and Miss Ellen Maury of Virginia. Frederick Perkins and Lieutenants Pardee, Underwood, Early and Hartle.

Miss Martha Wells and Miss Louise Lackland entertained a party of their young girl friends yesterday afternoon with a tea later down town, their guests being the Misses Vivian Ellerbeck, Claudia Green, Dorothy Jacobs, Martha Martin, Alice Purdy, Evelyn Tempest, Doris Edmunds and Ruth Hirth.

Mrs. James H. Brown arrived last week from Hollywood, Cal., and is here for a month or so. She is at home at 525 Lincoln avenue. Harold Ross Brown will be here shortly from the east to spend some time with his parents.

The Quinquena club will be entertained this afternoon by Mrs. A. A. Moulton at her home, 347 Fifth East street.

Mrs. F. E. Clark is down from Logan for a few days and is a guest of Miss Colburn at Rowland hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Hall have returned from their winter home in the north, and are settled at 312 East Second South street.

Mrs. H. D. Niles is home once more after a summer spent partly in the north-west and partly in Chicago. She and Miss Niles are at home at present at Whitehall.

Mrs. R. E. McConaughy is back after spending some three months in the east, and is at home at 215 East Second South street.

Mrs. Arthur Pearson and her small son arrived yesterday from Brigham City and will spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bern will leave in about a week for New York to spend some time there.

A. M. Wrench left last evening for California to visit his son, Merrill, who is in school there.

Major Cooper Anderson and his daughter, Miss Ruth Anderson, will leave today for their home at Orem, after a few days in town.

Mrs. B. T. Cannon, who has been visiting her mother in Omaha, has gone to New York for a stay of a few weeks with friends there.

Mrs. F. G. Morse left Sunday morning for Chicago, where she was called by the illness of her mother, to accompany the latter to her home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Lipman entertained the members of their Evening Bridge club last night at their home on First avenue.

The Wasatch Literary club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Leppin, 1423 Ninth East street. Mrs. D. Travis will read a paper on South Africa and Mrs. Forrester will take on "Current Events."

The tourist section of the Ladies Literary club will meet this morning at the club house to continue the study of the chapters of southern France. Mrs. E. D. Miller will present the topic.

Miss Gwendolyn Cannon entertained about thirty-five of her young friends at a Halloween party at her home Saturday night. The children came in costume and played games appropriate to the occasion, and a buffet supper was served. Decorations of white and lavender chrysanthemums, corn tassels, pumpkin jack-o'-lanterns, black cats and witches were used. Prominent among the many striking costumes were the "Colonettes" of Virginia Woodruff, the "Colonial Dame" of Mildred Calderwood, the "Fairies" of Ruthe Beyer, the "Indian" of John Wells and the "Cook" of Floyd Nelson, while the hostess appeared as "Red Riding Hood." Assisting were Dr. Martha H. Cannon and Mrs. R. S. Porter.
